

CORK COMMUNITY ART LINK

THE LIDO
our space, your space

Visit us at the Lido!

20th June - 1st July 2016

You are all invited to the grand re-opening of The Lido, the new work space of Cork Community Art Link in Blackpool. As we never do anything by the book, this opening will go on for 2 weeks - too many of you to fit in one evening! So look at our programme, choose an event or a time, and come and have a cuppa and a chat with us.

FREE ENTRY TO ALL EVENTS

WEEK ONE

Informal presentations and discussions, tea/coffee and biscuits will be on offer at the Lido throughout the two weeks of 'What If... Blackpool'. A photographic exhibition from our archives with video projections will also be on display.

Monday 20th June

11am - 1pm, 2 - 6pm Lido is open to the public

Tuesday 21st June

11am - 1pm CCAL Presentation/Community Group Meeting

- Meeting with community groups, organisations' representatives & interested individuals

2.30 - 4.30pm Public Discussion: History of the Lido

- We welcome a panel of local people and historians to talk about the history of the Lido and its context, accompanied by rich anecdotes. Bring your own stories!

4.30 - 6.30pm Lido open to the public for viewing

Wednesday 22nd June

11am - 1pm CCAL Presentation/Community Group Meeting

- Meeting with community groups, organisations' representatives & interested individuals

2 - 6pm Lido open to the public for viewing

Thursday 23rd June

Morning - closed for preparation of afternoon projections

2 - 4pm Lido open to the public for viewing

4pm Films on BLACKPOOL

- Three films on Blackpool, produced by Frameworks Films. Followed by public discussion.

8pm Cinema: Meet John Doe (1941)

- Settle in with some popcorn and travel back in time with our evening's cinema programme, presented in association with Frameworks Films.

- Surprise Performer

- Short: Sunbeam A Frameworks/ Cork Folklore Project co-production

- Feature: Meet John Doe (projected in 16mm film) A classic from Director Frank Capra, starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck. A man needing money agrees to impersonate a non-existent person who said he'd be committing suicide as a protest, and a political movement begins.

Friday 24th June

11am - 1pm, 2 - 6pm Lido is open to the public

8pm Cinema: Meet John Doe (1941)

- Cinema programme as on Thursday 23rd June

WEEK TWO

During the second week of our opening CCAL will host workshops for young people and movie screenings. In addition, this week workshops will commence for BLUE HOPE, a project lead by artist Laura Pauwels and supported by Cork Community Art Link as part of the World Day Against Trafficking in Persons. Come and participate in the making of an art installation that will be put on display on July 30th in Cork City Centre. The installation will comprise tape sculpture, origami and sculpture.

Monday 27th June

11am - 1pm, 2 - 6pm Lido is open to the public

2.30 - 6pm Open Workshop, Blue Hope (adults)

Tuesday 28th June

11am - 1pm Lido open to the public for viewing

2.30 - 6pm Open Workshop (6-12 year olds)

- Come and enjoy an art workshop with cardboard modelling, papier mache, recycling and painting. Workshops facilitated by CCAL Artistic Director William Frode de la Foret, and Sam Hamilton

Wednesday 29th June

11am - 1pm, 2 - 6pm Lido is open to the public

2.30 - 6pm Open Workshop, Blue Hope (adults)

8pm Cinema: Laurel & Hardy - Way Out West (1937)

- Presented in association with Frameworks Films and projected in 16mm film - just like in days of old!

Stan and Ollie are charged with delivering the deed to a valuable goldmine to the daughter of a dead prospector.

However, they reckon without the machinations of her evil guardian Mickey Finn, who is determined to have the mine for himself.

Thursday 30th June

11am - 1pm, 2 - 6pm Lido is open to the public

2.30 - 6pm Open Workshop, Blue Hope (teens)

Friday 1st July

11am - 1pm, 2 - 6pm Lido is open to the public

2.30 - 6pm Open Workshop, Blue Hope (teens)

8pm Cinema: Juno (2007)

- Starring Ellen Page, Michael Cera and Jennifer Garner. Faced with an unplanned pregnancy, an off-beat young woman makes an unusual decision regarding her unborn child.

All events are free!

Cinema tickets are limited and must be collected in advance from:

Cork Community Art Link
The Lido
71 Watercourse Road
Blackpool

For more information:

Call 021 4553747
info@corkcommunityartlink.com

If you would like to attend one of the community group meetings on the mornings of the 21st or 22nd June, get in touch with us!

www.corkcommunityartlink.com

www.whatif.ie

As part of What If... Blackpool, we aim to get an informed picture of cultural and social life in Blackpool, past and present, and to invite the community to learn more about our organisation.

